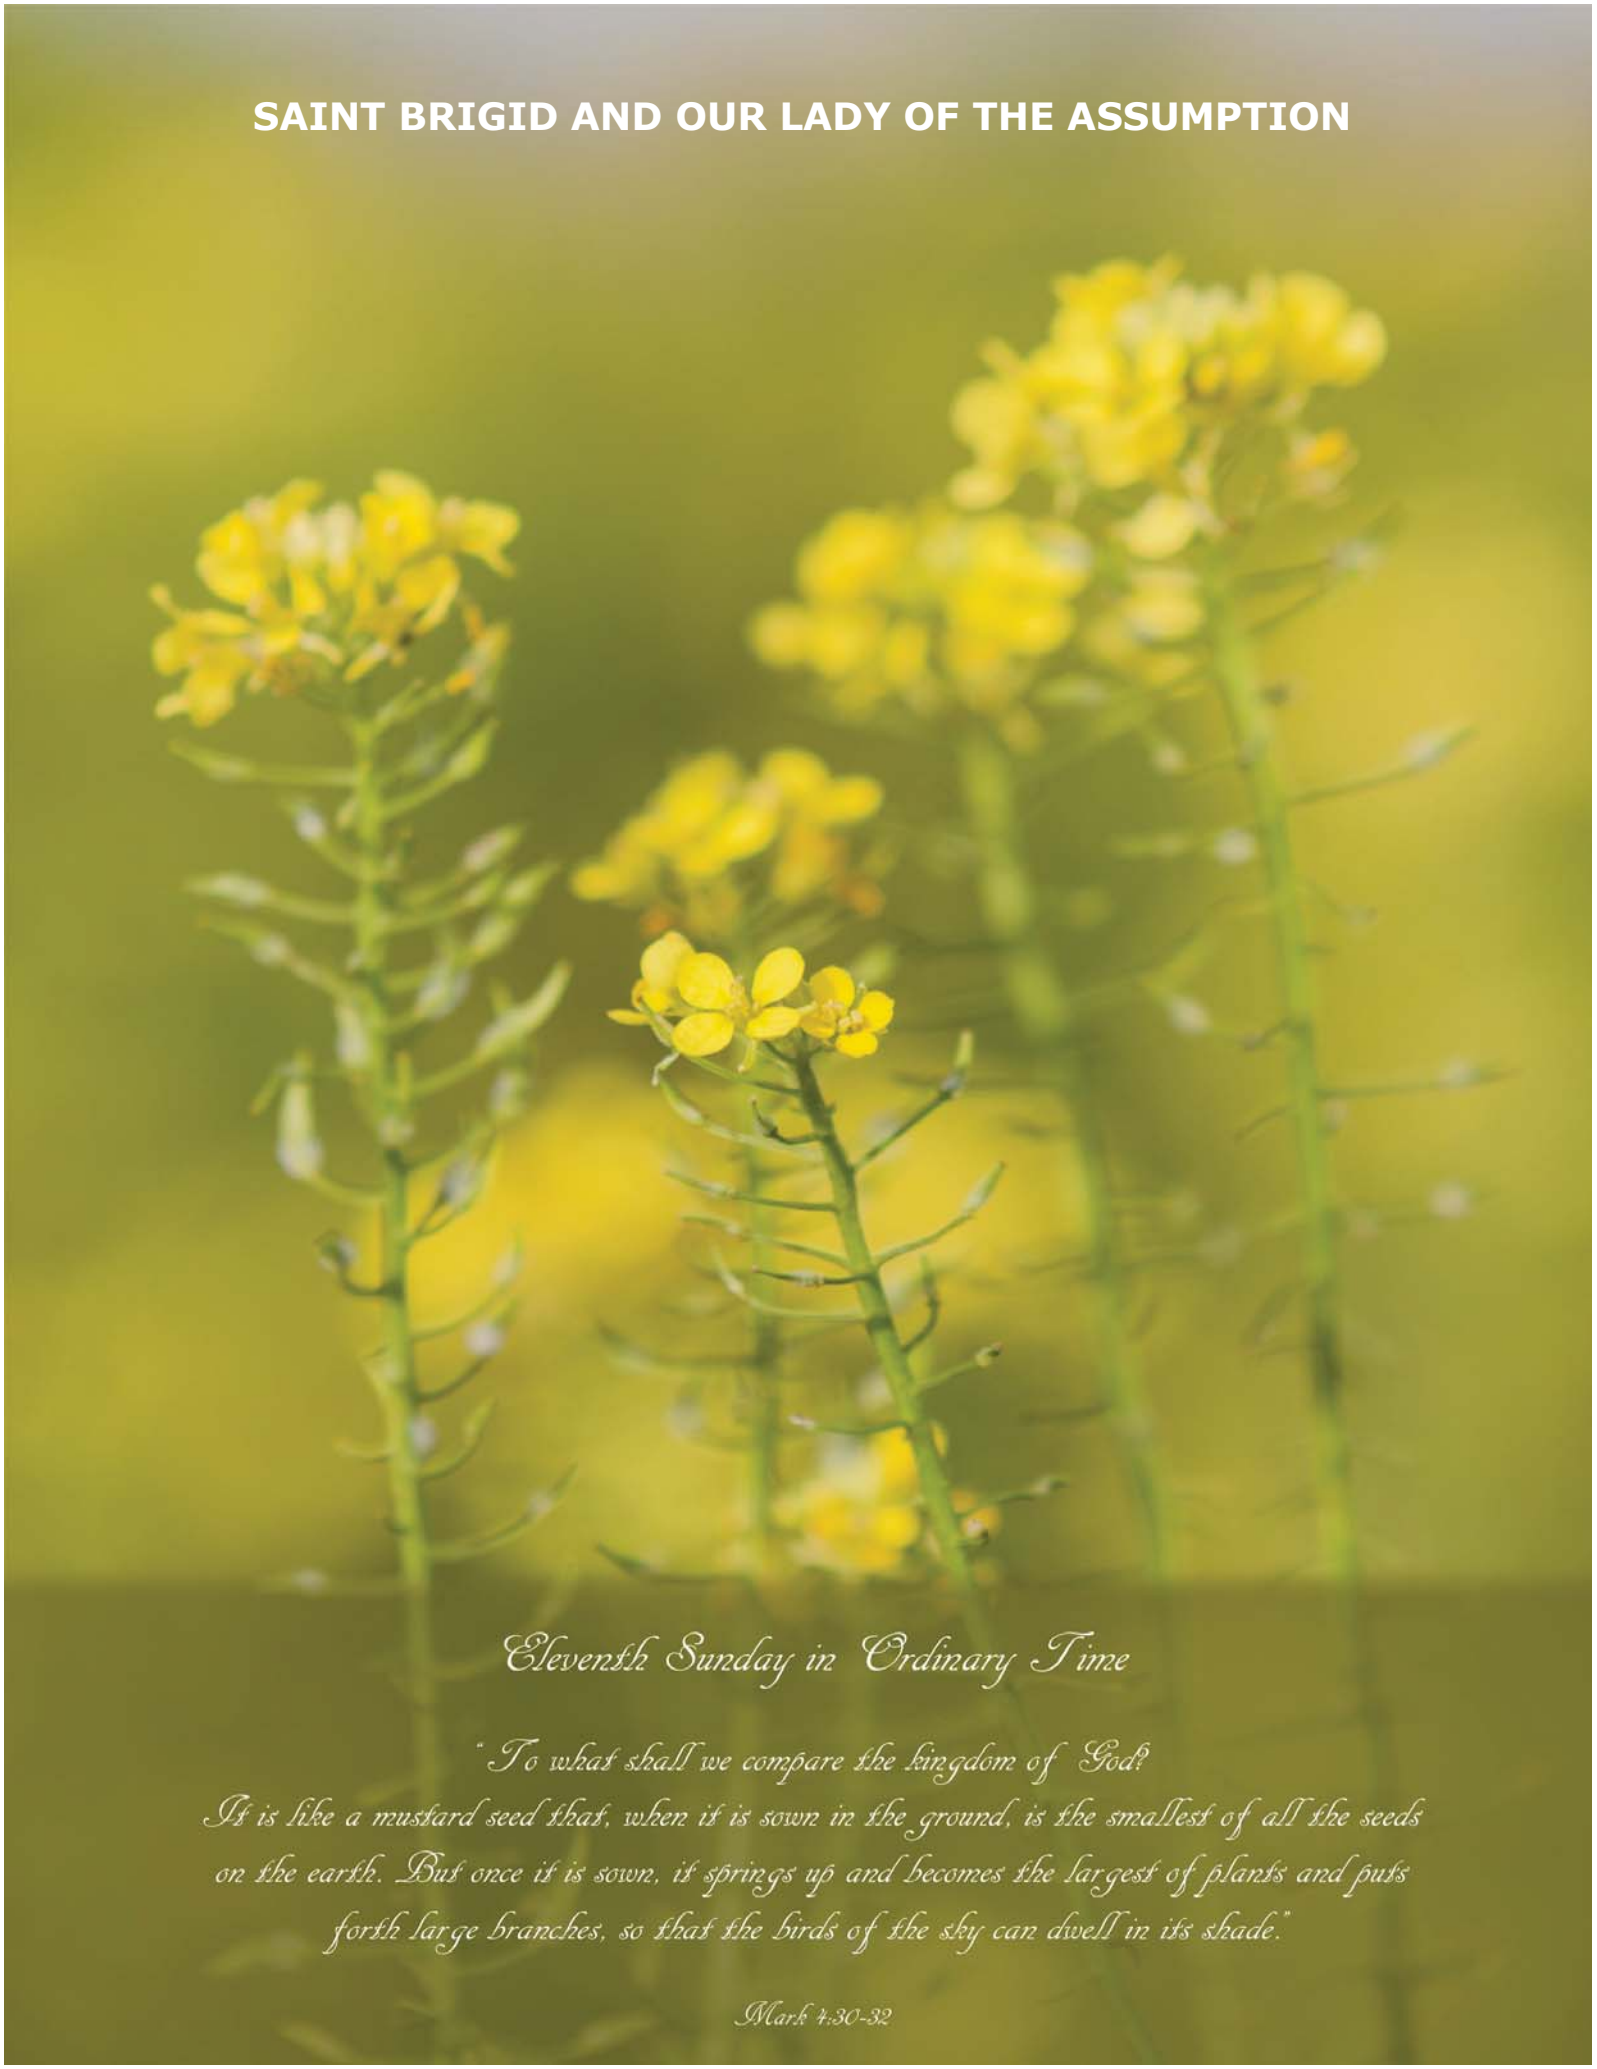
SAINT BRIGID AND OUR LADY OF THE ASSUMPTION



Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

"To what shall we compare the kingdom of God?
It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the sky can dwell in its shade."

"The KINGDOM of GOD is as if a MAN should SCATTER seed upon the GROUND, and should SLEEP and RISE NIGHT and DAY, and the SEED should SPROUT and GROW, he KNOWS not how. The EARTH PRODUCES of itself, first the BLADE, then the ear, then the full GRAIN in the ear. But when the grain is RIPE, at once he puts in the SICKLE, BECAUSE the HARVEST has come."

Assumption School

Millbury, MA

A legacy of learning...a history with heart

We are at that time of year of celebrating graduations. Please keep in your prayers our graduates as they celebrate their commencement from various levels of academic achievement: from Preschool to Kindergarten up to Middle School. These are important moments of transition to new things. It is a time of relishing the accomplishments, and remembering the struggles, failures and successes that formed us. It is a time to be very grateful for teachers, mentors, family, friends and peers who have journeyed with us along the way. It is a time to appreciate that we had the educational opportunities that we enjoyed. In these days we keep all our graduates in our prayers.

Congratulations to our 8th grade graduates!:

News & Updates

"Holy Eucharist"

In the Holy Eucharist Jesus gave us His Body and Blood to transform us into His likeness. To achieve this transformation, we must rely on grace, overcome the devil's temptations to despair, and ask God to reorient our values toward Heaven. Amen.

Men, young and old and those in between, come join us for coffee and pastry, along with prayer, formation and fellowship. COR was developed to form and strengthen Catholic men in faith and virtue, by drawing them into a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ.

At St. Mark's it is the first Sunday of the month at the rectory, 9:15am-10:15am, between Masses.

At St. Brigid/Assumption it will be the second Saturday of the month from 8:00am-9:00am at the rectory/offices of St. Brigid.

We wish all our fathers a very Happy and Spiritual Fathers Day. May you be guided by St. Joseph through your journey of fatherhood. God Bless.

May God's peace be with you all,

HAND CARVED OLIVE WOOD RELIGIOUS ARTICLES

Maysoon Khair will be at our church this weekend, June 15th &16th, representing over one hundred Christian families who make their livelihood through the selling of their hand carved olive wood religious articles.

After all Masses there will be a display of these beautiful hand carved religious items; such as nativity scenes, crucifix, rosaries, the Last Supper and many other beautiful religious statues.

Please stop by and look over the carvings that are available and help support this self-help project to keep children and Christians living in the Holy Land.

Thank You and God Bless You!

Saints Thomas More and John Fisher

D. 1535
FEAST DAY: JUNE 22

Saints Thomas More and John Fisher were Renaissance men. Talented and energetic, they contributed to the humanist scholarship of early modern England. More wrote theological and philosophical treatises, while making a career as a lawyer and government official. Bishop John Fisher worked as an administrator at Cambridge, confronted the challenge Martin Luther presented to Christian Europe, and most importantly served as Bishop of Rochester. As a bishop, he is notable for his dedication to preaching at a time when bishops tended to focus on politics. These men were brilliant. They both corresponded with Erasmus, who helped Bishop Fisher learn Greek and Hebrew, and who also famously referred to More as a man omnium horarium, a man of all seasons.

Above all their accomplishments, these men bore witness to a deep faith in Christ and his Church. More considered joining religious life and was assiduous in his devotional practices. As a married man, he committed himself wholly to his vocation as a father. At the time, disciplinary practices with children tended to be severe, but More's children testify to his warmth, patience, and generosity. St. John Fisher was a model shepherd and demonstrated remarkable humility. He remained in the small Diocese of Rochester his entire episcopal ministry, devoting himself to his local church rather than seeking promotion to a larger, more powerful diocese.

More and Fisher are well-known for opposing King Henry's divorce. Ultimately, it was their refusal to sign an oath of supremacy that led them to be executed. King Henry VIII claimed to be the supreme head of the Church in England, asserting sovereign power over English Christians. Neither Fisher nor More could abide this claim, and their steadfastness to their consciences put them in conflict with the king. They were convicted of treason.

When More made his way to the gallows, he is said to have stated, "I die the King's good servant, but God's first." Both More and Fisher were patriots. They never rose up to incite rebellion or foment revolution. They were not traitors. But when the law of the king came into conflict with the law of Christ, they chose Christ. These men gave their lives for the freedom of the Church and for freedom of conscience. They bear witness to the truth that no government can make a claim on a person's soul.
